Hair Fairy

Sharie Manon hearts Di Biase Hair Extensions USA

We know Sharie Manon, a.k.a. Hair Fairy, for her special sparkly twists on makeovers for Style Network's Glam Fairy, the hit spinoff of the infamous Jerseylicious docudrama. Now in Season 2, Glam Fairy has just switched-up its format to include a little drama of its own. "The show will definitely have more toils and trouble in season 2, but we're still doing makeovers," Manon assures us.

As for her hair, this Hair Fairy and host for Salon Galaxy has one more secret to spill: "I use and wear Di Biase hair extensions. Not only are they gorgeous in terms of quality and selection, but they also effortlessly stand up to 14 hours a day of working under hot studio lights and all the colorations that I put my hair through."

Di Biase Fusion hair extensions, which are made with double-drawn, remy hair, are affixed with thin keratin bonds. Clips, wefts and tape-in extensions are also available! (DiBiaseHairUSA.com)
